The Importance of Being Oscar

WINNER OF THE HOLLYWOOD FRINGE ENCORE PRODUCER AWARD, 2018

Finally released from prison, the disgraced and nearly ruined Oscar Wilde tries to reclaim his life. But his days are tragically numbered, and the formerly vivacious iconoclast is visited by an old friend, his estranged wife, and the most infamous of all of his fictional creations. Full of wit, whimsy, and heartbreak, The Importance of Being Oscar by Brandie June is a beautiful tribute to an icon of world theatre and one of the English language's greatest writers. Directed by Bob Martin, the cast features Brian Allard, Rosalind Fell, J.J. Johnson, and Rhansen Mars.

The Importance of Being Oscar run Friday and Saturday, October 12 & 13 at Blackfish Gallery, 420 NW 9th Ave in Portland. The show starts at 8PM and run about an hour. Admission is $10.00, cash or check only. Reservations are strongly encouraged, and walk-ins should arrive by 7:30P. All reserved seats will be released to walk-ins at 7:55P sharp. For information and ticket reservations: 971-266-3787, or readerstheatrerep@gmail.com.

Readers Theatre Repertory was founded in 2001 to tell "Small stories with big ideas at their heart," tales that alternately amuse, confront, assuage and inspire. Using one-act plays as the text, the company focuses on intimate human relationships to explore universal themes. Through these stories and through educational outreach and affordable ticket prices, RTR is committed to developing, expanding and diversifying Portland's theatrical audiences. The company's mainstage season is at Blackfish Gallery in Portland's Pearl District.
