ROSIE

by David Berkson

Featuring
LillyAnn Samsom and Andrea White

Readers Theatre Rep is back online with Rosie, a coming of age story about mothers and daughters, aging and rebellion, and the anguish of life's impossible choices. One hot summer day, 13-year-old Rosie refuses her mother's demand to visit her ailing grandmother as tensions and temperatures rise. Written by David Berkson, and featuring Andrea White and LillyAnn Samsom, Rosie is a humorous, tragic tale of love, misunderstanding, and the ultimate cost of growing up.

This online performance runs April 9 & 10 at 8PM. To see the show, click the Zoom link Rosie; the passcode is 'RTR. The link will go live 10 minutes before curtain at 7:50PM. Admission is free; donations are welcome at any time! The performance runs about an hour. For more information, contact readerstheatrerep@gmail.com.

Readers Theatre Repertory was founded in 2001 to tell "Small stories with big ideas at their heart," tales that alternately amuse, confront, assuage and inspire. Using one-act plays as the text, the company focuses on intimate human relationships to explore universal themes. Through these stories and through educational outreach and affordable ticket prices, RTR is committed to developing, expanding and diversifying Portland's theatrical audiences. The company's mainstage season is at Blackfish Gallery in Portland's Pearl District.
